Additional Information

TO THE APPLICANT: Read this Section carefully before answering any of the questions in this area. The Civil Rights Act of 1964 prohibits discrimination in employment because of race, color, creed, religion, sex, or national origin. Federal laws also prohibit other types of discrimination, such as age, citizenship, disability, veteran status, attainment of benefits, or participation in union activities. The laws of many states and localities also prohibit some or all of these types of discrimination, as well as prohibiting additional types of discrimination, such as discrimination based on ancestry, parental or marital status, sexual orientation, or source of income. Only those questions checked below by the employer are believed by the employer to be needed for a legally permissible reason.
